Neighbors Thought an Earthquake Had Visited the East Side. Damage $10,000.

NEW YORK, September 25 .- A gas explosion in the cellar of the building at 148 Delancey street early this morning completely wrecked the liquor store which

The gas is supposed to have found it way into the cellar from a wrenched main, which runs along in front of the building and which has been recently tampered with by the contractors who are digging the trench for the subway which is to connect the Brooklyn bridge and the Williamsburg

Harry Gans, the bartender, detected an odor of gas when he opened the saloon this morning and decided to investigate. Going behind the bar he opened a trap door and lit a match. He remembered no more until he picked himself up a few minutes later in the center of the room, where he was lying at the bottom of a heap of debris.

Gans was lifted clear over the counter by the force of the explosion, and on top of him was piled a miscellaneous assortment of plaster, splinters, mirrors, bottles and woodwork of all kinds. The place was completely wrecked, all the win-dows demolished, the back bar and its assortment of glassware and bottled liquor thrown in every direction, while the cigar case was lifted from its place in the back of the store and carried out into the street and dropped gently down at the edge of Subway Watchman Hurt.

Throughout the neighborhood the general opinion was immediately informed that the San Francisco earthquake had at last been put into the shade. All the windows in the four-story tenement at 96 Suffolk street were broken, and the crockery, glassware and bric-a-brac of the tenants was smashed. In a tenement house adjoining the place of the explosion, 150 Delancey street, a rent was torn in the back wall of the building reaching from the cellar to the roof. It was thought for a few moments that this building would collapse, and the police hustled the families out of it as rapidly as possible. All the stores in the neighborhood suf-fered more or less from the explosion. Sev-

Poles to Consider Diversion of Immigrants at Baltimore Meeting.

BALTIMORE, September 25 .- Aside from routine business there was little accomplished at yesterday's meeting of the Polish National Alliance, which is in session at Broadway Institute Hall. The meeting was called to order at 8 o'clock by Mr. John Siwinsky, temporary president, after which the reports of the officers, covering the work of the past two years, were taken up and discussed at length. The election of officers, which was intended to take place yesterday, will not be held until Friday. Beginning today, several important questions will be taken up and discussed by the convention. Chief among these is the diversion of immigrants from cities to agricultural pursuits, for which pur-pose a fund is being raised by the convention. The action taken on this sub-ject will be looked for with eagerness by the Poles throughout the country. Other topics to be discussed will be plans for the university which the alliance expects to erect at Wilkesbarre, and for which it has been collecting funds for the past four years, and the adjustment of insur-ance rates. ance rates.

The university will, if erected, be the only one of its kind in this country. There are two Polish seminaries in this country now, one in Detroit and one in Chicago, but neither comes under the supervision of the Polish National Al-

Some time during the week the convention will visit Washington in a body, at which time it will set the date for the unveiling of the monument to be erected in Lafayete Square there to the memory of Kosciusko, the Polish patriot. Already delegates from several of the cities represented have begun to boom their respective towns for the 1909 convention, and the fight promises to be a hot one. Those who are foremost in the battle now are from Pittsburg, Cleveland, St. Louis and Milwaukee.

Bank Burglars Shy.

BALTIMORE, September 25 .- Some interesting statistics regarding the experiences of banks and other financial institutions with cominals; the arrests and convictions of forgers, robbers and burglars, are contained in the annual report of the Pinkerton Detective Agency, which will be submitted to the annual convention of the American Bankers' Association at Atlantic City today.

The local branch of the agency has the distinction of reporting that there have been no burglarious attacks made or attempted upon any of the banks or banking institutions in Maryland and the District of Columbia during the last year.

Seventy-four forgers are reported to have been arrested by men in the employ of the agency during the year from September 1, 1906, to the first of this month. Nineteen bank burglars and one sneak thief were

The edifice costs $1,000,000 and has been under construction five years. There is as much trouble in getting the name of Brides of Yale spelled right as there was with Lynah of Cornell a few seasons back. Seven veterans of last year's eleven are the punting for Pennsylvania this season and to make the Quakers stronger in that and to make the Quakers stronger in that department than last year.

FRANK GILL WINS THE HINDOO STAKES

nyth at Gravesend yesterday, as five heavily played favorites were badly beaten. More than twelve thousand persons were on hand, attracted by the running of the $12,000 Hindoo stakes, for three-year-olds, at about a mile and three-quarters. . This event proved to be one of the biggest kind of ipsets, for J. L. McGinnis' Frank Gill, an added starter, who was generally neglected except by his owner, at 10 to 1, won rather easily, showing a startling form reversal which caused a lot of unpleasant talk. The public made the Patchogue stable's Smiling Tom, a high-class plater, the favorite at 9 o 5, at the same time backing James R. Keene's Superman, winner of the Brooklyn handicap, and R. T. Wilson, jr.'s Montfort down to 13 to 5.

There was also a liberal play on H. B. Duryea's Prince Hampton at 8 to 1. Prince Hampton showed the way for nearly a mile, where Horner overhauled him with Frank Gill, who had plenty of speed from the start. Montfort also closed rapidly, but stopped when he got into the stretch. Then Frank Gill went on about his business and won easily by two lengths in 3.02 3-5. R. F. Carman won two races and would have captured another but for a bit of hard luck. Arimo, 5 to 1, carried his colors to victory in the second race, for platers at a mile and a quarter. He had a world of speed, led from barrier to wire and beat A. L. Aste's Herman, backed from 3 beat A. L. Aste's Herman, backed from 3 to 13 to 5, by a length and a half in 2.08. Brancas, 13 to 5, under a lazy ride, was a poor third. Mr. Carman's Fleming, heavily backed at 11 to 5, won the fifth event, at about six furlongs. Boomerang, a 100 to 1 shot, led for the first quarter, where Fleming went to the front. At the head of the stretch Tom McGrath, even money favorite, with Miller in the saddle, apparently vorite, with Miller in the saddle, apparently had Fleming beaten, but Miller lost control of his mount and then falling to go to the whip, allowed Fleming to roll home three lengths ahead of him. McGrath was a Wins by a Head.

But for the fact that Sanguine, 16 to 5, swerved under the whip and almost knocked down Mr. Carman's Martha Jane, 7 to 1, at the last sixteenth pole, the latter would probably have won the third race, for twoyear-olds, at about six furlongs. Frank J. Farrell's Wave Crest, a 10 to 1 shot, who received a masterly ride from little Buxton, came from nowhere and under a hard drive got up in time to win by a head. Aunt Rose, 10 to 1, who was weakly handled in the last few strides by Liebert, beat Martha Jane a nose for the place. Sanguine was half a length back. The Patchogue stable's Running Account, 2 to 1 favorite, was poorly handled by Knapp, who kept him in the heavy going next to the rail all the way. The time was 1.12 2-5.
There was a great plunge on Bellwether in the first race, a handicap for two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs, as the colt was played from 6 to 1 down to 12 to 5 favorite. Dugan got him away running and he was never in danger, rushing past and he was never in danger, rushing past the judges with two and a half lengths over Big Chief, 13 to 5. Rampage, 10 to 1, was a length and a hallf back. Halket, the top weight, who opened favorite at 8 to 5, went up to 5 to 2 and ran accordingly. He lacked speed and was ridden in a bungling manner by McDaniel, who pulled the top to 5 to 2. up just after the start. The time was 1.08 4-5.

C. R. Ellison's Temaceo, 6 to 5, made al the pace in the last race, a handicap for all ages, at a mile and a furlong, and when it came sown to a drive he stood off Right Royal, 9 to 10, and beat him half a length in 1.56. A. L. Aste's Chalfonte, 20 to 1, ten lengths back, beat San Alviso, 10 to 1, half a length for third money. The track was
